MRS. HOWLAND'S RECITAL TO BE HER FAREWELL

A bevy of society girls will serve as ushers at the farewell concert to be given by Mrs. Beattie Abbott Howland at the opera house on the night of June 12, among them being Ruth Anderson, Mary Von Holt, Margaret Center, Thelma Murphy, Pauline Schaefer, Helen McLean, Hazel Buckland, Mary Lucas and Violet McKee.

In planning to give the concert, Mrs. Howland did so in compliment to the many requests from friends she has made during the several months she has been visiting here. To assist her in the program she has secured the co-operation of John Gifford, Florence Bocco Johnson and Mrs. L. Tenney Peck, all of whom are well known to Honolulu music lovers.

In preparing her program Mrs. Howland has arranged for the rendering of English, Japanese, Spanish and Hawaiian classics. The Hawaiian features will be under her own personal direction. It was for the study of island music that Mrs. Howland came to Honolulu to gather lore for use in dramatic musical productions on the mainland.

Mrs. Howland has appeared in public only twice since her arrival here, the last time being at the Memorial Day services for which she received a letter of thanks and appreciation from George W. De Long Post No. 45, G. A. R. Mrs. Howland intends shortly to leave for the mainland and the concert Friday night will be in the nature of a farewell to her friends.

POLICE SETTINGS

A charge of assault and battery preferred against D. H. Lewis was nolle prossed when brought before District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning.

As a result of a marked difference of opinion existing between several Russian women, one Elenia was brought before District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning upon a charge of assault and battery. The woman, when found guilty, was called upon to settle a fine of $5 and costs.

Joseph Ferrage, placed under arrest by Special Officer Chilton on Memorial Day, charged with reckless and heedless driving of an automobile, has been released by his bondsmen, and was brought for trial before District Magistrate Monsarrat this morning. The case against Ferrage will now be heard tomorrow morning, according to the present intentions of Deputy City Attorney Brown. In the meantime Ferrage has been released on $25 bail.

Kaimuki society was out in force at district court this morning when testimony was sought in the matter of disposing of two vagrants who are alleged to have made themselves obnoxious to women residents of the suburb. L. A. Smith and William Plaxton were arraigned before District Magistrate Monsarrat. It was stated that the men resided in the practice of visiting the residential district, and under the pretext of seeking some thing to eat or wear, refusing to leave the premises until their demands had been met.

CABINET IS NOW MORE HOPEFUL IN MEXICO SITUATION

[By Latest Mail] WASHINGTON.—Postponement of the Mexican mediation conference at Niagara Falls, Ont., at the request of the Huerta delegates, who wished to spend more time in Washington before the opening of the mediation, will make it possible for the delegates to bring the latest details in the situation and to be entertained at Washington by the Spanish ambassador.

Announcement of postponement was made Friday, following a cabinet meeting at which a more hopeful view of the situation prevailed. President Wilson is confident that mediation will accomplish something toward settlement of the Mexican problem. This brighter outlook was also increased when Huerta's action of the Lobos incident was received. The mediators said that the Huerta government had decided to resume operation of the Lobos light, which had been maintained and operated by United States forces since it was deserted by the regular mediators. The three South American mediators paid their respects to President Wilson Friday.

Another diplomatic difficulty was cleared Friday when it was learned that the five so-called South Americans who had been held at Vera Cruz for firing upon Americans during the occupation of that port were really Mexicans, and had been released.

A gift of $500,000 by Mrs. Archibald D. Russell of New York, for the building of a sanctuary in the National Cathedral at Washington, is announced.

Advices from Auvers sur Oise, France, announces the death there of Charles Sprague Pearce, the artist.

The new Cunard liner Aquitania will be equipped with two 30-foot life boats with motor and wireless apparatus.

John R. Early, the leper whose case attracted public attention for several years, has escaped from the quarantine station near Port Townsend, Washington.

THERE'S A PLOT HATCHING WITH BARRON THE GOAT

Never Mind Mixed Metaphor, the Yarn Is They're Going to Give "Soapbox" Hook

Charles "Soapbox" Barron may not enjoy as hearty a political reception on his return here as he no doubt looked forward to.

If the efforts of a few of his brother committeemen are successful, he will be out of the Democratic county committee, both as vice-chairman and a member, ere his return.

Notices were sent out today by Will Miles, secretary of the committee, notifying the members that an important meeting of that body will be held June 13 at 7:30 o'clock. Miles did not make a secret of the fact that a resolution is expected to be introduced which, if passed, will mean that Barron can no longer call himself vice-chairman of the committee.

"We want to rid the committee of trouble-makers," said one of the committeemen this morning. "We want to get men on the committee who will work in harmony for the best interests of the party."

"Before long we wish to hold a conference with the territorial central committee and plan out the coming campaign. We expect to have another chairman and vice-chairman before Barron gets back."

"Banana Jack" Kalakela may resign as chairman of the county committee. Having accepted a position in the police department, Sheriff Rose may insist that he sever his connections with the committee. Former Sheriff Jarrett made a rule that no employee of the department should belong to a political club or committee, and Rose, it is understood, will enforce this same rule.

LOCAL AND GENERAL

London cables saying that there are no further demands in the United Kingdom for shipments from Cuba is regarded by A. M. Nowell, manager of the Sugar Factors' Co., as an unfavorable feature of the sugar situation.

Mr. and Mrs. David Paoo Jellings will entertain their friends at a luau to be given in honor of the first birthday anniversary of their daughter, Mona Nui Jellings, at Poala hall, Holoakalana lane, Liliha street, next Sunday.

This evening Exeelsior Lodge No. 1, I. O. O. F., will confer the first degree on a candidate of Harmony Lodge. The degree team is in good shape and will put the work on in good style. All Odd Fellows are requested to show their interest in the order by attending.

The women of the Kaumakapili Church Christian Endeavor Society will hold a sale of lauau, otherwise known as pig and lauau, on the morning of June 11, for the benefit of the society. Hauia, otherwise called Hawaiian ice cream, will be another delicious article on sale.

The case of Joseph A. Doyle and Maude Schumann Doyle, charged with a statutory offense, is scheduled to come up in the federal court Monday morning. United States District Attorney Jeff McCann, who has conducted the prosecution in past proceedings, received a cablegram last night from Marshall Holohan of San Francisco to the effect that Mrs. Viola Lukens, a former wife of Doyle and a witness against him in the present imbroglio, will not be in a position to come to Honolulu for at least two months. It is expected that Mrs. Edna Ferguson Doyle, another former wife, will arrive here on the Ventura Monday as a witness for the government.

New Idea in Street Paving

Pavement piercing for petty repairs by public utilities is so universally practiced in our larger cities that the public has become inured to the spectacle of seeing the paving materials on the sidewalk or piled in the gutter. The engineering board suggests that engineers look into the feasibility of a removable type of pavement which can be picked up in large blocks extending from the curb to the car track and laid to one side while the driver after constant troubles pursues his task. Inquiries in Chicago and talks with practical pavement men indicate that the idea has merit and presents few, if any, insurmountable difficulties. Rough calculations indicate that concrete blocks of ten-inch thickness, reinforced, might cost upward of $2.75 per square yard, exclusive of hauling to place. They could be transported at night over the street railway tracks and unloaded by a crane directly on to previously prepared longitudinal reinforced foundation walls at curb and car tracks.

Blocks would seem to be specially suited for the portion of the street that the railway companies are required to pave, as in most cases foundations for the blocks already exist. The almost inevitable necessity of removing the pavement prior to its life limit should make the removable, versatile and interchangeable features worthy of detailed study by street railway engineers.—Engineering Record.

Twelve hundred children were found living in one block by school census enumerators at Chicago. Louis Link heads the list of parents with 17 children.

LITTLE INTERVIEWS

—CAPT. PETER JOHNSON: It may be true that the alleged hoodoo that has been pursuing the good ship Wilhelmina has been left far astern. This vessel has met with no mishap in some time at any rate.

—ALEXANDER LINDSAY, JR.: My connection with the McCann-Sylvester matter apparently had no bearing on my being appointed to investigate the McCann-McBride affair. As long as the principals in this matter are satisfied with the appointment, so am I.

—H. P. WOOD: Lecturer Clum of the Southern Pacific is going to be supplied with a large number of lantern slides by the Promotion Committee for his lectures on Hawaii which will be delivered throughout the east this fall. Such publicity will come in handy at that time.

—FRANK LANE (Parser steamship Wilhelmina): How could one expect a dull moment on a vessel that carried a live-wire bunch of baseball players as passengers. With the exception of about 24 hours of rough weather, the steamer Wilhelmina was favored with summer seas.

The following two government leases were auctioned off yesterday by Land Commissioner Tucker: The 15 year lease of land known as Keakehe, Kona, Hawaii, containing 660 acres; bought by Frank Gomes for annual rental of $401. Five year lease or land of Halola, Hamakua, Hawaii, for $911, 182 acres; bought by Hamakua Mill Company.

Twenty Acres and Liberty

Dr. Maurice Francis Egan, the American minister to Denmark, who is home on a vacation, says that if intensive farming, coupled with co-operation, could be carried on in this country with half of the scientific application of the Danes, the high cost of living would soon cease to be a problem. He ventures to say that if the abandoned farms of Massachusetts alone could be put under the direction of competent Danes they could be made to yield food enough to supply the whole of New England. This is high praise, but there is no doubt that it is deserved. The climate of Denmark is among the poorest in Europe, but in spite of that great disadvantage the farmers of that country have tackled the problem courageously and have triumphed. One of the reasons for this lies in scientific cultivation of small farms. The tendency in Denmark is to cut large estates into small farms and to work these intensively. As a consequence it is asserted that a family in Denmark can take a 20-acre farm and make a comfortable livelihood. Each member of the family has his work cut out, and the general results are entirely satisfactory. The simplicity of national life is against display and all that is possible is done for the poor. Minister Egan is authority for the statement that in Denmark the wealth per capita is greater than in any other country in the world.—Philadelphia Inquirer.
